Ms. Hiba k p

Ms. Hiba k p has 4 years of experience working in the Hospital Industry as an Admin, its often forgotten that Hospitals are huge businesses that require efficient management just like any other business. The nature of hospitals and the sensitive nature of the business functions is also why hospital management as a course needed to be taught by someone who has experience working in the industry. Anamika has taken all measures to gather the relevant information in the industry and project it in a plain and simple fashion for the benefit of all students. The course is built for professionals since Anamika herself happened to join the industry as a matter of sheer coincidence as is common for these types of jobs. nevertheless for those looking to deliberately join this field the options are limitless and the field is stacked with vacancies. The course curriculum covers all relevant aspects of every green field.
